

Two things there's just too
little of – hope and love.

Both belong in advertising
as much as the rest of life.

One of The Analects of Advertising, by Karin Gottschalk.
karinangelika@mac.com